

الحرم الإبراهيمي بالخليل - فلسطين " دراسة معمارية فنية "

الفنون والعمارة بالحرم الإبراهيمي

( الخليل - فلسطين )

في القرن العشرين

The Ibrahimi Mosque in Hebron - Palestine "Architectural Architectural Study"

Arts and Architecture in Haram Ibrahimi

(Hebron - Palestine)

In the twentieth century

الباحث/ حسن عبد الله حسن مهنا

hassanawy.mhanna@gmail.com

Summary

The city of Hebron is one of the areas that have an impact on the souls of Muslims in general and the people of Palestine in particular, and so on the importance of coordination of being an Arab city in an Arab Islamic country, the beloved State of Palestine, which includes the Al Aqsa Mosque, the first Qibla and the third of the two holy mosques, Absorbs a briefing from King Abdulaziz University for Science and Technology.

Directed to the study of the Ibrahimi Mosque, the difference between the graves of the prophets and the Sunnah, peace and mercy of God be upon you.

Those looking at the Ibrahimi Mosque from the outside observe the diversity of its components in terms of stones.

"He did not go from a clap to a nail, nor was it cracked, nor was it broken, nor changed, either visible or hidden".

In this research, I have re-described the contents of the Ibrahimi Mosque.

And then went to the description of the minarets and went to describe the roofs of the Ibrahimi Mosque, then addressed the talk about the entrance to the mosque, and then stumbled upon the grounds of the Ibrahimi Mosque, and then moved to mention the sources of water in the Ibrahimi Mosque, and then went to describe the worshiper from the inside, And talked about the mihrab, and then talked about the pulpit, and then to talk about the entrances of the Laurel Sharif, and then talked about the monks, and then turned to the scenes of graves in the Cave of the Patriarchs.