

Religious writings on the popular class Rectangular pendant In light of the objects stored in
Museum of Geographic Society in Cairo

Dr Randa Mohamed

Abstract: Rectangular pendant stored in Museum of Geographic Society in Cairo were decorated with religious writings taken from Holly Quran and Hadiths, Egyptian women used this Ornament because it relates to some inherited customs and traditions.

The main target of the research is to highlight the aesthetic rectangular pendant stored in Museum of Geographic Society in Cairo through historical perspective, in addition to highlighting the decorative value of art that single out the framework folklore for Egyptian women.

Research Methodology: To achieve the objectives of the research, both the descriptive and historical methods are used to study Rectangular pendant stored in Museum of Geographic Society in Cairo

Key words: Rectangular pendant – inherited customs – Museum of Geographic Society in Cairo– Religious influences