The Importance of Establishing the Visual Identity of Governmental Organization and its Role for Creating an Interactive Creative Society.

Abstract: The Arab community in need of expression of identity and civilization and the arts across government institutions first and society II until his image represents the creative Arab with a footprint in all areas of life.

It is capable of building an informed educator community through innovative visual language